Compliance Recall Notice 17C01 / NHTSA Recall 17V-053
Aviso de Revisión de Cumplimiento 17C01

Mr. John Sample
123 Main Street
Anywhere, USA 12345

Your Vehicle Identification Number (VIN): 12345678901234567

This notice is sent to you in accordance with the National Traffic and Motor Vehicle Safety Act.

Ford Motor Company has decided that your vehicle, with the VIN shown above, fails to conform to Federal Motor Vehicle Safety Standard (FMVSS) 102 for Transmission Shift Lever Sequence, Starter Interlock, Transmission Braking Effect and additional FMVSS standards governing warning indicators.

We apologize for this situation and want to assure you that, with your assistance, we will correct this condition. Our commitment, together with your dealer, is to provide you with the highest level of service and support.

What is the issue? On your vehicle, immediately after engine start up at cold ambient temperatures, the transmission shift position indicator located in the instrument panel cluster may not illuminate and display the selected transmission gear position, increasing the risk of injury or crash from unintended vehicle movement. In addition, an inoperative instrument panel cluster display may prevent activation of certain warning chimes, messages and warning lights.

What will Ford and your dealer do? Ford Motor Company has authorized your dealer to reprogram the instrument panel cluster free of charge (parts and labor).

How long will it take? The time needed for this repair is less than one-half day. However, due to service scheduling requirements, your dealer may need your vehicle for a longer period of time.

What should you do? Please call your dealer without delay and request a service date for Recall 17C01. Provide the dealer with your VIN, which is printed near your name at the beginning of this letter.

If you do not already have a servicing dealer, you can access www.Fordowner.com for dealer addresses, maps, and driving instructions.

What should you do?
