Subject: Expansion of Safety Recall 2118A Takata Passenger Frontal Air Bag Inflator
(Permanent Remedy Repair) 2007-2009 B-Series due to migration of Safety Recalls 9616F and 0817A vehicles into Safety recall 2118A

On June 15, 2018, Mazda will be opening as Parts Available Safety Recall 2118A for all 2007-2009 B-Series truck owners which will serve as the permanent remedy repair for Safety Recalls 9616F, 0817A and existing 2118A vehicles. For easier tracking previous recalls 9616F and 0817A will migrate into Safety recall 2118A.

Recalls 9616F, and 0817A will be closed and eliminated from eMDCS by June 14 as they are migrated into Safety Recall 2118A.

Further information regarding repair procedures, along with parts and warranty information will be sent to all dealers, via eFC, next week, June 14th. Beginning June 15, 2018, parts will be available to order via the Restricted Parts Web Ordering Screen on MXConnect Parts screen.

All 4,533 customers affected by this recall will be notified by first class mail beginning June 15, 2018, that parts are available, and to contact your nearest Mazda dealer to complete their recall.

Your understanding and support in carrying out this recall campaign are greatly appreciated.

Because Driving Matters, Safety Matters. Your Safety is Important to Mazda.

Sincerely,
