To: All General Motors Dealers

This bulletin has been revised to include the positive battery cable replacement information. Please discard all previous copies of N202325160.

IMPORTANT: The cable assembly is currently in process of superseding the 8491xxxx part number shown in the "Part No." column. When ordering this part, you may see either one of the two versions listed in the GM Electronic Parts Catalog. Either part number, as well as any part number released in the future, is acceptable to use to close the recall if replacement of the cable assembly is required.
