 Campaign Summary *****

INFINITI is committed to safety, security, and satisfaction of our clients and their passengers. INFINITI has notified the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) and Transport Canada that it is recalling certain INFINITI Model Year 2021 Q50, Q60 and QX80 vehicles to reprogram the telematics control unit (TCU).

Due to a supplier error with the In Vehicle Connectivity (IVC) software within the TCU, when privacy mode is activated the Accessory (ACC) power may turn off, cutting power to the Audio/Video (AV) control unit. Privacy mode disables data transfer related to the vehicle's connected services. If the client enables privacy mode and if the vehicle is not started in the following 14 days, the rear view monitor/navigation screen/multi-function control touch screen cannot be operated upon engine start. In this condition, the rear view image cannot be displayed, which does not comply with S5.5.6 and S6.2.6 of FMVSS 111; Rear Visibility. If the rear view image is not available while backing up, it may impair their rearward vision and increase the risk of a crash.

Affected vehicles are subject to stop sale and are either currently in retailer inventory or assigned and in transit to the retailer.

This includes vehicles purchased from private parties or presented by transient (tourist) owners and vehicles in retailer inventory. If a VIN subject to this recall campaign was part of a retailer trade, the letter associated with that VIN should be forwarded to the appropriate retailer for service completion.
