Product Recall

NHTSA ID: 22E-091

Thule Camber 2 bike, Thule Camber 4 bike and Thule Range 4 bike carrier

Dear Thule Group Customer,

This notice is sent to you in accordance with the requirements of the National Traffic and Motor Vehicle Safety Act.

The Thule Group has decided that a defect which relates to motor vehicle safety exists with Thule Camber 2 bike, Thule Camber 4 bike and Thule Range bike carriers, manufactured in the date codes listed below.

Thule Range –	Date code 05/02/22 through 07/26/22
Thule Camber 2 Bike –	Date code 04/14/22 through 06/23/22
Thule Camber 4 bike –	Date code 03/31/22 through 06/23/22

At the Thule Group we take quality very seriously and product safety is our top priority. We have determined that when the bike carrier is in use a weld on the arm assembly can crack and fail. There is a risk that bike carrier arm assembly may become detached from the bike carrier if the safety strap or locking cable is not used. This could cause a vehicle crash or injure nearby pedestrians
