Chronology :

In January 2022, Jayco received a claim of an inverted flame on the cooktop of a unit built in our Idaho location. Jayco began monitoring our data for other similar allegations. Claims slowly continued to come in and each was discussed and evaluated in our weekly Warranty Incident Review Committee (WIRC) meetings. In May 2022, an incident on a Starcraft unit was elevated from WIRC to the Corrective Preventive Action Committee (CPAC). The CPAC committee met on May 18, 2022 and discussed the incidents and decided to open an investigation. On September 7, 2022, CPAC decided to elevate this matter to the Safety Steering Committee (SSC). Jayco towable engineering conducted testing to better understand the conditions that could lead to an inverted flame. This research was concluded at the start of October 2022. On October 10, 2022 SSC met to discuss this matter and voted in favor of proceeding with a safety recall. Jayco received a total of eight claims between January 2022 and October 2022.

Description of Remedy :

Description of Remedy Program : Sealant and plywood panels will be used to seal the area around the gas line hose and the area adjoining the cooktop. On some units, plywood panels will be installed to separate the furnace and cooktop. This remedy will be done at no cost to the owner. Repairs made prior to the recall will be reimbursed in accordance with our Recall Reimbursement Plan on file with NHTSA. Jayco Inc. will file completion reports.

How Remedy Component Differs from Recalled Component : The flame on the cooktop will not invert when the furnace operates.

Identify How/When Recall Condition was Corrected in Production : By the start of October 2022, information was shared with production to emphasize the importance of sealing the area around the cooktop when the furnace is located in or near the cooktop. Sealant and plywood panels were used to seal the area around the gas line hose and the area adjoining the cooktop.
