Chronology :

On March 14, 2023, an issue pertaining to 18 reports of underhood fire allegations on 2015 to 2017 model year MKC vehicles in North America and China was brought to Ford's Critical Concern Review Group (CCRG) for review. The vehicles were parked and off at the time of the fires.

Ford CCRG's investigation continued throughout March, April, and May. The investigation included vehicle inspections, supplier reviews, product design reviews, field data analysis, and component- and subsystem-level lab analysis.

To date, no fire cause or origin has been determined, but the fires appeared to originate near the vehicles' 12-volt batteries.

As of May 15, 2023, Ford's CCRG is aware of 19 potentially related reports of underhood fire, including 7 reports since December 2022, while the vehicle was parked and off. 11 of the instances were in the United States, 7 in China, and 1 in Canada.

On May 19, 2022, Ford's Field Review Committee reviewed the concern and approved a field action to advise owners to park their vehicles outside and away from structures while Ford's investigation continues.

Ford is not aware of any physical injuries related to this condition.

Description of Remedy :

Description of Remedy Program : Owners of vehicles will be notified by mail and instructed to park their vehicle outside and away from structures and other vehicles due to the risk of unattended vehicle fire. Owners will also be informed that Ford's investigation is ongoing and that they will be contacted when further information is available.

Ford provided the general reimbursement plan for the cost of remedies paid for by vehicle owners prior to notification of a safety recall in May 2021. The ending date for reimbursement eligibility is estimated to be November 30, 2023.

Ford will forward a copy of the notification letters to dealers to the agency when available.
