Recall campaign
Sant'Agata Bolognese, 22 December 2003

Dear Sir, Dear Madame,

Automobili LAMBORGHINI S.pA. (LAMBORGHINI) has decided that a defect which relates to motor vehicle safety exists in certain model year 2002-2003 LAMBORGHINI Murciélago vehicles.

The Upper Steering Column Shaft Coupling could separate from the Steering Input Shaft because the upper steering coupling bolt was not properly tightened onto the steering shaft.

LAMBORGHINI will remedy this Defect FREE OF CHARGE by adjusting - if necessary - the torque of the steering shaft screw to factory specifications.

Please call immediately to make an appointment for an Inspection at the LAMBORGHINI dealer most convenient for you.

Lamborghini's program to remedy this defect consists of :

- a. Inspection of the torque of the steering shaft screw
- b. The screw will be re-torqued to factory specification
- c. Mark the steering shaft bolt with yellow paint.
- d. Installation of the Sticker - "Completed - Recall L147.R-01.03"
- e. The vehicle is road tested and returned to you

If, for any reason, you cannot conveniently arrange to bring your vehicle to an authorized LAMBORGHINI Dealer or Service Point, please call Lamborghini After Sales Dpt:

+39 051 68 17 839 for Europe

Mr. Massimo Guaraldi

+39 051 68 17 672 for Extra-Europe

Mr. Cosimo Nasole.

We regret any inconvenience this Recall Campaign might cause you, but we urge you to take advantage of this opportunity to have your vehicle inspected and, if necessary, repaired so that you may continue to safely enjoy your LAMBORGHINI vehicle.

If this check has already been carried over on your vehicle, please do not take into consideration this letter and accept our apologies for having contacted you again.

In case the vehicle had been sold, we will be thankful if you could provide us with the nominative and the full address of the purchaser. You may fill the attached form and fax it back to us at +39.0516817-709. We thank you for your cooperation.

We hope you are one of ours satisfied customers.

Sincerely,

Bernd Hoffmann
Sales & Marketing Director

Giorgio Gamberini
After Sales Manager
